

Question 1

Are you prepared for a disaster at home?

	SELECT ALL THAT APPLY	ADDITIONAL INFORMATION	RESOURCE / LINKS
4 P O I N T S	I have an emergency plan with my family and neighbors.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Plan to contact loved ones before, during, and after a disaster. Sign up for crisis response efforts on social media platforms like Facebook, and Red Cross to find each other. Make different plans for evacuation and stay-at-home. Stay connected with neighbors in case of dropped cell service. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Community Emergency Response Team (Houston) Facebook Safety Check Red Cross Contact Loved Ones 311 Houston TranStar
3 P O I N T S	I have a cell phone that can receive emergency text alerts and maintain a current list of emergency contacts.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Battery charger for your phone: solar, or auto adapter. Include both local and out-of-town relatives & neighbors. Join community based social media platforms. Check your phone for local & national alerts. Check to see whether you are eligible for free phones and service. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> National Wide Emergency Alerts Houston Wide Emergency Alerts Cell Phones for Low Income
2 P O I N T S	I have a disaster checklist and a stockpile of necessities.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Set up a checklist for both evacuation and stay-at-home with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Medications Toiletries Important documents Water and nourishments First aid kits 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Build an Emergency Kit - FEMA Build an Emergency Kit - Ready Build an Emergency Kit - Ready_Food Build an Emergency Kit - Ready_Water
1 P O I N T	My insurance is up to date and applicable for medical, life, and property needs.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Is your property properly insured? Check to see if flood insurance is recommended for your area. Maintain a physical copy of all insurance policies including medical, life, and property. Prepare to document the damage for a claim. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Floodplain Management Office